30 second story

Mike walked into a post office just before Valentine's day, he couldn't help noticing a middle-aged, balding man standing in a corner sticking "Love" stamps on bright pink envelopes with hearts all over them. Then the man got out a bottle of Channel perfume from his pocket and started spraying scent over the envelopes.

By now Mike's curiosity had got the better of him, and so I asked the man why he was sending all those cards. The man replied, "I'm sending out 500 Valentine cards signed, 'Guess who?'" "But why?" asked Mike. "I'm a divorce lawyer," the man replied.

10 Tips to Ask a Girl Out

1. Mustering enough courage
Prepare yourself mentally because you wouldn't want to stand in front of the girl and realize you've blanked out on how and what to say.
2. Practice confidence
Confidence is the key to asking any girl out. If you reek of nervousness or low confidence, you will put the girl off.
3. Be neat and clean
There's nothing people hate more than bad hygiene.
4. Approach with a smile
This will not only show that you're confident in your own skin but also put her at ease, lowering her guard.
5. Be aware
Keep your head on when you're talking to the girl. If she's responding in a manner that shows she's uncomfortable, re-evaluate your conversation topics.
6. Add humor
Humor is always effective in a conversation. There's nothing more attractive for women than a guy who can make them laugh.
7. Self assurance
This is another key ingredient of a successful first conversation, before you ask the girl out on Valentine's Day.
8. Don't be a show off
This is one mistake most people make in the hopes of 'impressing' the girl before they ask her out. Guess what? It backfires most of the time because it shows you're full of yourself and not someone who can step out of his own shoes.
9. Encourage her
You need to encourage her to speak and share things with you. Ask her questions because that will show you're interested in what she has to say. But be sure you aren't too probing and personal with your questions.
10. Ask her out
Pop the question only after you're sure she has been interested in you all along. Make sure you don't come off too strong. Be gentle in your choice of words and the way you approach the topic. Good luck!
